SEYMOUR, INDIANA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 1919.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

RECEPTION HERE FOR RAINBOW UNIT

150th. Field Artillery Expected to Pass Through City About 5
O'clock this Afternoon.

FACTORY WHISTLES TO SIGNAL

When Train Leaves Columbus Word
Will Be Sent Here So Local People May Assemble.

Seymour will give the 150th. Field Artillery, Rainbow division, a big reception in this city this afternoon. It was learned positively this morning that the Rainbow units would go through Seymour this afternoon enroute from Indianapolis to Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., and plans for a reception here were hurriedly made. Claude Carter and Nathan Kaufman made preparations for the reception and have arranged for the local citizens to gather on Indianapolis avenue between the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the Southeastern Line as the train will stop for the crossing but not at the Pennsylvania passenger station.

The division will be transported in several sections, the first, the hospital unit leaving Indianapolis shortly after noon. The headquarters division, to which the Seymour men are attached, is scheduled to leave Indianapolis at 3:30 o'clock and should arrive here soon after 5 o'clock. However, there may be some unexpected delays and that everyone may be apprised of the arrival of the section in time to greet the boys, arrangements have been made for the factory whistles to blow as soon as the train leaves Columbus. This will give about thirty minutes notice.

Three Seymour boys will be with the Headquarters company—Ed Huber and Kingley and Reginald Brinklow. Cullin Barnes is a member of the unit but did not return at this time as he qualified for a course at the University of Bordeaux.

It is emphasized that the citizens are not to assemble at the Pennsylvania passenger station as the train will stop before the depot is reached. Residents along Indianapolis and Jeffersonville avenue are requested to display flags and decorate their houses in honor of the Hoosier heroes. The Boy Scouts have consented to serve for patrol duty along the avenue.

DEPUTY CITIZENS WANT BETTER UTILITY SERVICE

Committee Takes Up Matter of Establishing Electric Light Plant There.

A committee of Deputy citizens, headed by Hiram Foster, was here Tuesday, conferring with L. C. Griffiths, owner of the telephone system there, relative to improvements in the telephone plant and lines and to the installation of an electric light plant in the town. It is the desire of the citizens there to have all the utilities under the control of one organization and it was for this reason that the light proposition was taken up with the local telephone interests.

GENERAL PERSHING WILL ARRIVE IN ENGLAND MAY 22

On Following Day He Will Present
American Medals to British Officers.

By United Press.
London, May 7—General Pershing, commander-in-chief of the A. E. F., will arrive in England on May 22, it was announced today. He will come to England on a destroyer and will be received by a guard of honor. The following day the American leader will present American medals to British officers and on the 24th he will lead 3,500 American soldiers in a march through London. They will be escorted by an equal number of British troops. The king will take the salute at Buckingham Palace.

BIG DELEGATION GOES TO CAPITAL

Approximately 250 Discharged Jackson County Soldiers Participate in Celebration.

MANY CIVILIANS MAKE TRIP

County Delegation Headed by The Seymour Concert Band—Men Were in High Spirits.

Headed by the Seymour Concert Band and accompanied by a large delegation of civilians, approximately 250 discharged Jackson county soldiers went to Indianapolis this morning to participate in the Welcome Home Day celebration which was staged for the returned Hoosier soldiers. The 150th Field Artillery, Rainbow Division, formed the center of the festivities. The local party made the trip on a special train which left here about 8:30 o'clock.

John E. Hunsucker, chairman of the county council of defense, had the arrangements of the day in charge and shortly after 7 o'clock the soldiers began to assemble according to townships so that the tickets could be distributed. Mr. Hunsucker had been supplied with a list of the men in each township who had registered for the trip and the names were checked off as rapidly as the tickets were handed out. A representative to enroll the men was appointed in each township and these made the trip to Indianapolis to see that their respective delegations were taken care of in a good manner.

SCOUTS AIDING IN CLEAN UP DRIVE

Assignment of Various Districts in City Given to the Four Local Troops of Scouts.

The Boy Scout troops in this city will have a definite task to perform in connection with the clean up campaign waged this week under the supervision of the civic improvement committee of the chamber of commerce and the city council. The boys gladly consented to aid in this work and J. H. More, scoutmaster of Troop 1, was asked to district the city and assign the four troops.

Mr. More has arranged several districts with the following assignments:

Troop 1 to work in that section of the city south of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad tracks to Brown street and also in the district north of the Southeastern Line.

Troop 2, F. A. Hayward, scoutmaster, will have charge of that district south of Brown street.

Troop 3, Charles Hemmer scoutmaster, will have supervision of that territory west of the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks, north of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and south of the Southeastern Line.

Troop No. 4, W. E. Carroll, scoutmaster, will work east of the Pennsylvania Lines north of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and south of the Southeastern Line.

The work of the scouts will be limited to picking up and collecting in piles such trash and rubbish as cans, paper, sticks and like materials. Their work will be done after school adjourns each day and will be completed before Saturday. The boys will work in conjunction with the street department, but will not give any attention to the alleys of the city.

Marriage License.

A marriage license was issued today to Edward Baughman of Owen township, and Rosie Henson, of Brownstown township.

UNCERTAINTY AS TO HIGHWAY WORK

Committee of Chamber of Commerce Named to Ascertain Status of The Contracts.

WATER PLANT DISCUSSED

Appointment is Made of Members to Look Into Matter of Municipal Ownership of Property.

That the road contracts for the construction of concrete highways in Jackson township are in an uncertain situation, is the belief of some of the members of the chamber of commerce expressed at the regular meeting Tuesday night. It was stated that inasmuch as the Boone Construction Company, which was given the contracts, was not relieved of its obligations by the commissioners as it requested, it might endeavor to block the construction of the roads in case the contracts were awarded to another firm. The commissioners did not receive new estimates on the cost of the highways but accepted the former estimate. It is explained that under the new highway law in Indiana contracts can be awarded even if the bids are higher than the engineer's estimate. Under the former law the bid accepted had to be less than the estimated cost of the proposed improvement. A committee of which G. C. Borcharding and F. J. Voss are members, was named to look into the status of the contracts and keep the chamber of commerce informed as to what action is taken. The organization endorses the immediate improvement of the roads as the money has been secured by the sale of bonds and the roads are in need of improvement.

The matter of municipal ownership of the local water company was presented for informal discussion. It was pointed out that whatever action is taken in this direction must be decided upon within the next two months so that proper notice can be given the company under the provisions of its franchise.

Some of the members thought that if the property could be purchased at a reasonable figure the city ought to issue bonds for the amount needed. It was the view of some that the income from the plant would more than pay the interest on the bonds and the surplus could be used to apply on the principal of the purchase price. W. C. Young, president, was given power to appoint a committee of ten members to take this matter up with the city council so that whatever action is decided upon can be determined in the near future.

The chamber voted to approve the plan of sending one boy and one girl from the local high school to Purdue University and an appropriation of $30 was made to conduct the contests from which the candidates will be chosen. The appropriation was made with the understanding that the contests would be conducted under the

INDIANA WELCOMES HER WAR HEROES

150th Field Artillery, Rainbow Division, Arrives at Indianapolis at 9:27 O'clock.

CAPITAL CITY DRESSED UP

Decorations and Preparations For Gigantic Celebration Cost More Than $150,000.

By United Press.
Indianapolis, May 7—Indiana opened her arms to her soldier heroes today. Arriving here at 9:27 the 150th Field Artillery, Hoosier contingent of the Rainbow division, saw an Indianapolis all dressed up and thousands of people here to greet them. Their arrival set off the guns of a gigantic welcome home celebration which has been in preparation for several weeks and which cost more than $150,000. While the welcome centered around the 150th Field Artillery, it was extended to all Indiana fighters, soldiers, marines and sailors. It awaited only the home coming of this unit because it was practically the last Hoosier unit to leave France.

Flags unfurled as the bands struck up "The Star Spangled Banner" and other patriotic airs. Bunting dropped from the windows and roofs of business buildings. The Stars and Stripes floated over private homes and to this in many instances were added the tri-color and the union jack.

There was a galaxy of colors on (Continued on page 6, column 3.)

AUTO DRIVEN BY SOLDIER IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Glen Wood Returning to Salem After Visit in This City When The Accident Occurs.

An automobile driven by Glen Wood, a soldier who is spending a furlough with his brother near Salem, Washington county, caught fire this morning and was destroyed. The accident occurred two miles south of Vallonia while he was returning to his brother's home. The machine was the property of Wood's brother. The motor backfired and the flash ignited waste oil and gasoline in the pan. The flames spread rapidly and while people in the vicinity aided the soldier in smothering out the blaze the car was demolished.

Wood had been visiting in this city, having driven here. He started on the return trip this morning. He was recently given a furlough from Camp Merritt and was spending the time in this vicinity.

TERMS OF PEACE TREATY ARE HANDED TO GERMANS

CONDITIONS OF TREATY SEVERE

Alsace Lorraine Restored to France
With Internationalization of Saar Basin.

ACCEPTS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Hohenzollern Property in Alsace To Go to France—Plan for Reparation of Civilian Damage.

By United Press.
Versailles, May 7—The conditions of the treaty which was handed to the German representatives here today are most exacting and will reduce Germany to a third or fourth rate power.

The treaty terms in substance follow:

Germany shall be bound to accept any agreement reached with her former allies. Germany restores Alsace Lorraine to France.

Germany accepts internationalization of the Saar basin temporarily. Promulgates the league of nations. Danzig permanently internationalized.

Germany agrees to territorial changes towards Belgium and Denmark in east Prussia.

Germany cedes most of upper Silesia to Poland.

Germany renounces all her territorial and political rights outside of Europe.

Germany recognizes total independence of German Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

German army reduced to 100,000 including officers.

Conscription within German territories abolished.

All German forts for fifty kilometers east of the Rhine razed.

All important exportation and nearly all production of war material stopped.

Allied occupation of parts of Germany continued until reparation made.

Any German violation of conditions pertaining to the Rhine zone constitutes an act of war.

German navy reduced to six battleships, six light cruisers and twelve torpedo boats with no submarines.

German navy personnel to consist of not over 15,000.

All other war vessels must be destroyed or surrendered.

All Heligoland fortifications must be demolished.

Kiel canal to be opened to all nations.

Germany must surrender her fourteen submarine cables.

Germany's naval and air forces abolished after October 1.

Germany can accept full responsibility for all damages to all allies and associated governments and nations.

Germany must reimburse all civilian damages beginning with an initial payment of twenty billion marks.

Subsequent payments in reparation to be secured by a bond issue approved by the reparation commission.

Germany must pay shipping damages ton for ton.

Germany must devote her economic resources to rebuilding devastated regions.

Germany must revert to pre-war "most favored nations" tariffs without discrimination.

Germany must allow freedom of transit through her territories to allied nations.

Germany must accept highly detailed provisions as to pre-war debts, unfair competition and other economic and financial matters.

Germany must accept highly detailed provisions for internationalization of roads and rivers.

The ex-kaiser to be tried by an international high court.

Other violators of laws on war to be tried.

Germany to accept the league of Germany Learns Price She Must Pay in Money and Territory For Attack on Civilization.

CLEMENCEAU MAKES SPEECH

Manuscript Translated in German.
Handed to Enemy Delegates by Secretary Dutasta.

May Seventh.

1915—Germany, drunk with success, defied the whole world by torpedoing the Cunard liner Lusitania without warning. The loss of 1,154 civilians, including women and children, changed American public opinion from neutrality to hatred of the Germans and paved the way for American intervention.

1919—Germany's revolutionary government which succeeded the kaiser and other authors of the war, received the terms of the peace treaty, which reduces Germany to a third rate power and forever ends the menace of Prussian militarism.

By United Press.

Versailles, May 7—The Germans received the treaty at 3:17 this afternoon. Presentation of the treaty followed a brief speech by Premier Clemenceau, chairman of the peace conference, in which he welcomed the delegates.

The manuscript of the treaty, translated in German, was handed to the enemy representatives by Secretary Dutasta.

The entire ceremony lasted but fourteen minutes. Four years ago Germany challenged civilization by torpedoing the Cunard liner Lusitania without warning, killing over one thousand civilians. Today, she learns the price she must pay in finances, territory and loss of national prestige. Her penalty in blood already has been exacted.

The ceremony of presenting the treaty to the Germans took place in the Trianon palace hotel. Premier Clemenceau sat at the head of the main table, facing the Germans at the foot. President Wilson and the other American delegates sat at his

SENATORS EAGERLY AWAIT PUBLICATION OF TREATY

Examination to be Made to Ascertain if it Contains Any "Surprises."

By United Press.

Washington, May 7—Senators today eagerly awaited publication of the peace treaty summary. They were prepared to scan it carefully in order to see: 1—How it squares with the fourteen points; 2—whether it contains any "surprises" in the way of concessions or arrangements not hinted at in cable dispatches from Paris; 3—whether it entangles the United States in any unexpected European alliances or agreements of a permanent character.

Indications in Republican circles are that soon there will be statements designed to show that President Wilson has not brought through his peace program based on his fourteen points.

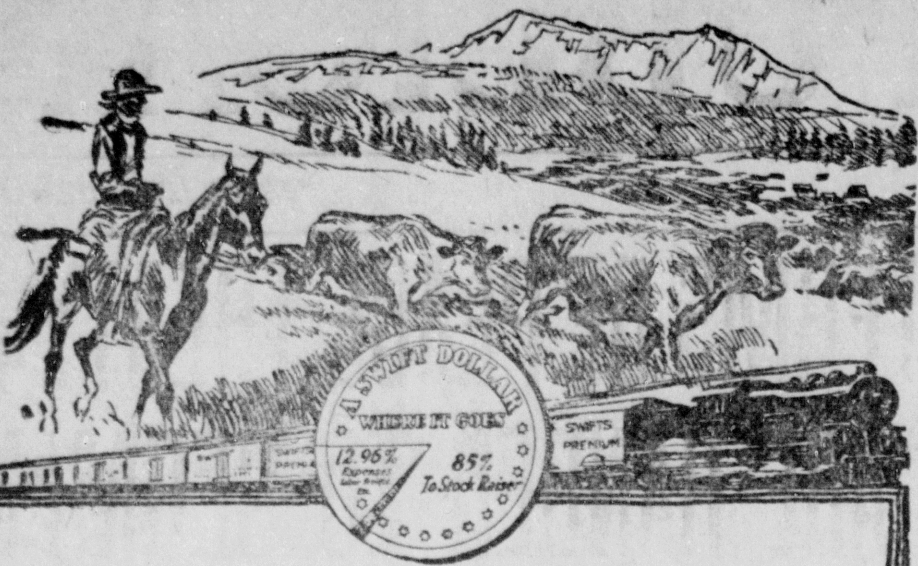

Democrats are prepared to counter any such attacks by pointing out that the league of nations covenant will take care of some of the questions involved in the fourteen points and that President Wilson never expected adoption of his program into

The Flow of Meat

Two-thirds of the live stock in the United States has to be raised in the West.

One-half of the consumers of meat live in the East.

In other words, most of the live stock is one or two thousand miles distant from most of the people who need it in the form of food.

Fifty years ago, when live stock was raised close to every consuming center, the country butcher could handle the job after a fashion.

But the job got too big.

Now millions of animals have to be moved hundreds of miles to millions of people. Somewhere on the way they have to be turned into meat.

The packers solved the problem. They set up plants where the "live haul" and the "meat haul" were in the right balance. They built up distributing systems—refrigerator cars, refrigerating plants, branch houses. They saved time, money and meat everywhere. The stockraiser benefited in better markets and higher prices; the consumer, in better meat and lower prices.

As the country grew, the packers had to grow, or break down. Because of its present size and efficiency, Swift & Company is able to perform its part in this service at a fraction of a cent per pound profit.

YOU ARE NOT YOUR BROTHER'S KEEPER IN "V" OBLIGATIONS

Don't Worry About What The Neighbor is Doing, But Buy Your Own Notes.

Here is one instance where you are plainly not your brother's keeper. It is your own personal responsibility that you should be worrying about.

Maybe you have an idea that because William Henry Smith did not buy any Liberty Bonds of the Fourth Loan that you feel free not to buy any this time. If so, forget it.

What William Henry Smith or Aloysius Adoniram Jones did in the last loan has nothing to do with your case. You can "tell it to the Marines" so far as the rest of the world is concerned, but the Marines will not listen to you. The Marine is not a man who shirks a duty and that is just what you are proposing to do.

Nor does it matter insofar as your own duty and your own patriotism are concerned what the man next door is doing or is threatening to do about subscribing to the Victory Liberty Loan. Certainly it ought not to matter about him until you have done your own full duty. Then a few words of remonstrance, gentle or otherwise, in the ear of the stubborn neighbor might help.

But it is up to you first. Whatever your neighbors and friends may have done in other loans or in the present loan does not affect your present situation—not a bit.

Forget the other man until you have done your duty. Your own case is the one for earnest consideration.

Uncle Sam is interested in you. He knows that if every man will look after his own subscription that the whole job will be done in record time.

Forget the Neighbor

But you cannot expect the other fellow to put over the loan all by himself. And what good is it going to do you if all your neighbors should fail to put over their own personal subscriptions to the Fifth Loan?

Will that help you to face your own conscience, to face duty knowing that you failed? Won't it simply mean that you and your neighbors have formed a little nest of slackers? And that all right thinking men everywhere will condemn you for the bunch of quiting slackers that you are?

Just put the other chap out of your mind. So far as you are concerned he is not on the earth until you have subscribed for every dollar of the Victory Liberty Loan that you can honestly afford. After you have done that you are entitled to be interested in whether or not your neighbor is doing his part.

You are going to do the paying for whatever you subscribe for. That is the first point to consider. The man across the street or down the road, he is not assuming your obligations. It is your debt and your debt alone, that you are paying when you buy Liberty Bonds.

May Be Watching You.

As a matter of fact, he may be watching you just as you have been watching him. You have an opportunity to show him and to "show him up" if he does not subscribe and you do. Possibly he is not even doubting your intentions of subscribing.

Maybe he is giving you the full benefit of the doubts that he has had about you. The best thing for you to do is to play the same game with him until you know better.

The first rule in this Victory Liberty Loan game that is now being played all over the country is to do your own part first. And if every possible bond buyer among the American millions will do this the Victory Liberty Loan will be over-subscribed.

But—keep your own burdens. Don't try to shift them on the other fellow. Don't try to hide behind the remissness and to excuse your own slacking and shirking by citing him as an instance.

You have to stand on your own feet in this game. Excuses don't go. If you have the money or can find the money, you are a slacker if you don't get into the game.

MRS. CHARLOTTE DAVIS DIES NEAR REDDINGTON

Funeral Will Be Conducted Friday Afternoon From Home of Ben Fox.

Mrs. Charlotte Davis, widow of the late Martin Davis, of Redding township, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Fox, Reddington, after an illness with a complication of diseases. #### BURLESON'S CHALLENGE

Albert S. Burleson, postmaster general, whose administration of mistakes and failures has reached the point where friends of the Wilson administration are demanding his removal for the "good of Democratic politics," has charged that the fight that has been made upon him is backed by "selfish publishers." He has issued a challenge to Charles Johnson Post, director of the Publishers' advisory board, to disclose all money raised by him to repeal the postal zone law or to state in what manner the alleged contributions were spent. Mr. Post immediately accepted the challenge, offered to place himself under oath for examination and to turn over all his books and records for inspection.

In return Mr. Post challenges the postmaster general to make public "your records of the moneys received by you and the profits made by you in connection with convict labor on properties owned by you, a convict labor system which competes with free American labor and in which whippings, brutality and ferocious punishments were the methods of extracting adequate labor from its victims." The plantation alleged to be operated by Burleson is in Texas.

Mr. Burleson denied he has employed convict labor on his Texas ranches, but declares that the state of Texas is operating the plantation. The squabble between Burleson and Post has nothing whatever to do with the Burleson public administration. But Mr. Burleson alleges that the publishers have raised money to embarrass his administration. On the other hand, no industry has contributed more liberally, more freely and with greater willingness for the success of the war than have the newspapers and magazines. Advertising space was freely given without cost to the government. Mr. Burleson in return places greater hardships upon the publishers through the postal zone law. The publishers, however, do feel that since the rates have been increased so much, they are entitled to at least the same character of service that was given them under the lower rates. That is what the Burleson administration has failed to do. The postal system of this country is in the worst condition in many years. Mr. Burleson found it in a good condition. He did not face the handicaps that other administrative departments found when they entered office. The record made by Mr. Burleson as postmaster-general is his own. The records are wide open and the public is familiar with the poor quality of service rendered. Mr. Burleson is the only man in the United Velvet is a friendly tobacco in the truest sense, because, like friendship, it has been allowed to ripen naturally—nothing forced or unnatural.

There are "hurry up" ways with tobacco but only patient aging (two years in wooden hogsheds) can bring out the mellowness that sets Velvet apart.

Roll a Velvet Cigarette
Velvet's nature-aged mildness and smoothness make it just right for cigarettes.

You know what mellowness is—now think of a good friend who is never harsh to you.

There you have the big thing about Velvet—mellow friendliness.

You and Velvet—begin your friendship today.

right. At his left, were Premier Lloyd George and the other British representatives, next to the Americans the French delegates with Marshal Foch in their midst. Then followed the lesser delegates.

Selection of Versailles as the setting for this world drama is significant in that nearly half a century ago the modern German empire was born here at the conclusion of the Franco-Prussian war. Germany's dream of world domination began and ended in Versailles.

Forty-five newspaper correspondents including five Americans had seats at the right side of the room. Mrs. Wilson occupied a chair directly behind Clemenceau.

The phraseology, as well as the text of the treaty, it is stated, will satisfy the most ardent "German hater." When the text is published it will be found that in substance it does not differ radically from the outlines of its various outlines previously published by the United Press.

The treaty carries a short preamble, merely stating that the war has been terminated on the ensuing terms. The first section is the league of nations covenant. The remainder is divided into sections. The frontiers of Germany within Europe follow the covenant. Other sections comprise the frontiers outside Germany. Political arrangements in Europe; military, naval and air terms; economic and financial reparations, the international regime of ports, waterways and railways; international labor legislation and the finale.

The latter carries the provisions by which the treaty is to become effective. The treaty is printed in parallel columns in French and English. It contains approximately 75,000 words, comprising a volume several inches thick and about 12 by 8 inches in length and width.

The American and allied diplomats motored here from Paris. The Germans will be driven in motors from their quarters in the Hotel des Revervoirs to The Trianon Palace hotel. The program provides for a guard of honor during the allied arrivals. It will be withdrawn before the Germans reach the hotel.

INCREASED GAINS NEEDED DAILY TO PUT DISTRICT OVER

Though Still Leading St. Louis Section Must Hustle to Make Quota in Time.

STANDING OF THE TWELVE DISTRICTS.

The Eighth (St. Louis) Federal Reserve District is still in first place in the great Victory Liberty Loan campaign, but Minneapolis made a gain of eight points in percentage while St. Louis was only gaining three, and the Minneapolis District is now only seven points behind this district, and unless the St. Louis District looks to its laurels it may be passed. Chicago, that for a while was competing with Minneapolis, dropped into third place, with a per cent mark of 53.5, and is in danger of being crowded still lower, as Boston is coming with a rush, and is nearing the half-way point. The general per cent of the twelve districts is only 40 per cent, and while the St. Louis District is first with a per cent mark of 24 points higher than the general average, the district is by no means certain of retaining the commanding position it now holds. The following table shows the relative standing of the districts at the close of business Monday, May 5:

District	Subscriptions	Per Ct.
St. Louis	$132,591,000	67.9
Minneapolis	95,280,000	60.4
Chicago	350,712,000	53.5
Boston	182,009,000	48.5
Kansas City	85,386,000	43.7
Richmond	89,668,000	42.6
Atlanta	56,120,000	38.9
Cleveland	167,839,000	37.2
Philadelphia	121,493,000	32.3
New York	410,900,000	30.4
San Francisco	85,915,000	28.8
Dallas	25,763,000	27.2

EIGHTH DISTRICT BY UNITS.

The following figures show the progress of the states and St. Louis City and St. Louis County in the Victory Liberty Loan contest at the close of business Monday, May 5:

State	Subscriptions	Per Ct.
St. Louis County	$1,449,750	1.151
Indiana	13,073,800	.931
Kentucky	22,989,700	.927
Tennessee	12,265,150	.855
Mississippi	8,283,950	.775
Arkansas	14,116,050	.687
Missouri	22,616,250	.649
Illinois	18,691,350	.615
St. Louis City	29,045,800	.570
Total	$142,522,800	.731

St. Louis, May 7.—Despite a gain of ten millions for the district, and gains in all the units, the Eighth (St. Louis) Federal Reserve District will have to make increased gains if it goes over the top in the Victory Loan drive in the present week, when the campaign will close.

Sales of Victory Notes throughout the district total $142,522,800, and the percentage of the district is 73.1, leaving 27 per cent to be sold by Saturday.

St. Louis city and St. Louis county, the largest and the smallest units in the district, recorded the greatest gains. The city gained nearly four millions in sales, and increased its per cent standing seven per cent. St. Louis county increased her per cent column, and now stands at the top of the table with 115 per cent.

Kentucky still continues to be the state on which the eyes of all the other states are fastened. The Blue Grass State increased her per cent mark to .927, and is less than one per cent behind Indiana, which has led throughout the campaign, and which was first over in both the Third and Fourth Loans.

Kentucky was off to a slow start, but when Louisville went over the top in four days, the balance of the state responded to the whip and spur which was applied by State Chairman Gwin and she went forward with a rush.

Kentucky Coming Strong.

Three more Kentucky counties, Trigg, Wayne and Franklin, went over the top, making 30 out of 64 counties in the honor column. In jumping up practically to 93 per cent of its quota, Kentucky now has sales of $22,989,700 toward its allotment of $24,775,150. There are four counties still to be heard from—Ballard, Clinton, Hancock and McCrean.

According to reports at headquarters, there are only six counties where there seems to be doubt about reaching the allotment; meantime the rivalry between Kentucky and Indiana is so keen that the girl secretaries are almost at the point of making it a personal matter.

State Chairman Sonntag of Indiana, who has had things pretty much his own way in regard to maintaining first place among the states in previous loans, and who looked for a while to be sure of repeating in the present campaign, has evidently become very much alarmed at the strides of his neighboring state and is spending several days in his territory spurring up his workers. Indiana now lacks only seven per cent of the goal, and it would not be surprising to see the next set of figures place her in the honor position.

Tennessee, a state that in previous loans had always been a poor starter, made a sprint at the beginning of the campaign, and for several days bade fair to be a dangerous rival of Indiana. But Tennessee remained stationary for several days, while Indiana kept plodding. Yesterday Chairman Jordan telegraphed from Memphis that city had gone over the top with a fresh impetus, giving her a standing of 85.5. Her gain was six points, being only four per cent of the gain that St. Louis county made.

Getting the Iron Men.

A telegram from Memphis announcing that Shelby county had reached the goal was signed by Messrs. Helfin and Jordan, and read as follows: "This is dope tip you want: $9,700,000 Iron Men."

There are three Tennessee counties which have not been heard from—Decatur, Fayette and Gibson, and in Gibson county, where workers are known to be making progress, the quota is $587,750. Seven of the Tennessee counties are over the top and Chairman Jordan is expected to bring substantial returns to headquarters Wednesday or Thursday.

Mississippi also made a brave showing, increasing her sales $8,283,950, and tacking on nine additional points gives her a standing of 77.5 per cent. State Chairman Kretschmar returned to headquarters yesterday after being several days in his state, spurring his workers on. He says he finds conditions in his state satisfactory, and he expects to get reports in a few days that will place his state over the top.

In Mississippi, De Soto county passed the wire, making 16 counties out of 40 over the top in this district. Many of the other counties are known unofficially to have reached the goal and Chairman Kretschmar says that with the exception of half a dozen counties all will be in the honor column in a few days. In the half-dozen danger spots workers are being concentrated for an intensive drive.

Illinois added only three points to her per cent figures yesterday, and is now next to the cellar position, with a per cent mark of 61.5. State chairman Crabtree is still in Illinois, and his advices, unofficial, are that there is no need to fear for the result in the Sucker State, and that before the gong sounds Saturday at the close of business, Illinois will have passed under the wire with a fair over-subscription.

At the Illinois headquarters advices were received from Randolph county saying that subscriptions had reached 77 per cent of the $615,000 quota, and that the county will go over the top "flying." This message was signed by E. B. McClure, county chairman. Only partial reports have been received from some of the larger Illinois counties, and the figures have not been added to for several days, but unofficial information is that the sales are encouraging. Among these counties are Adams, St. Clair, Macoupin and Madison. No reports have been received from Perry county which has a quota of $510,000.

Situation in Missouri.

Things are more cheerful around Missouri headquarters, the state's sales advancing practically 5 per cent for the day. A second report was received from Gasconade county showing that they have sold $300,000 of notes toward the $436,000 quota. St. Charles county has gone over the top and a message from J. F. Rauch to State Chairman Hughes stated that the sales are $865,500, which is 110 per cent of the $814,150 allotment. Workers are confident that St. Charles may show a much larger over-subscription.

With the last week of the campaign well advanced there are five Missouri counties which have not sent in any figures of sales. They are Daviess, Hickory, Maries, Morgan and Ozark. Missouri sales total $22,616,250 out of the quota of $34,836,100, and the percentage is 64.9. A message was received from Wayne county saying that it would double its quota.

Chairman Van Ripper of the St. Louis Metropolitan Division, is becoming worried about the slowness of the St. Louisans to respond. Yesterday full-page advertisements appeared in all of the St. Louis newspapers informing the public that the St. Louis banks would carry their patrons for 90 per cent of their subscriptions for nine months at the rate of interest the Victory Notes bear. This, it is believed, will stimulate sales in the city, and make many new subscriptions possible.

St. Louis county is not satisfied with having been first over the top, and Chairman Collins Thompson is now hard at the task adding to his over-subscription, and he wants the county to lead in this respect also.

EIGHTH DISTRICT COMPARISON.

The following figures show the progress of the states and St. Louis City and St. Louis County in the Victory Liberty Loan contest for the period ending Monday, May 5. The first two columns show the standing in the Victory Loan, while the last two columns show the subscriptions and percentages achieved by the same unit in the Fourth Liberty Loan for the corresponding period:

State	Victory Loan Subscriptions	Per Ct.	Fourth Loan Subscriptions	Per Ct.
St. L. Co.	$1,449,750	1.151	$1,500,850	.89
Ind.	13,073,800	.931	18,562,450	.98
Ky.	22,989,700	.927	29,990,350	.80
Tenn.	12,265,150	.855	10,490,550	.57
Miss.	8,283,950	.775	9,698,100	.74
Ark.	14,116,050	.687	17,794,450	.74
Mo.	22,616,250	.649	28,353,500	.62
Ill.	18,691,350	.615	26,755,600	.65
St. L. C.	29,045,800	.570	46,001,150	.69
Total	$142,522,800	.731	$189,147,000	.72

Twenty-two counties are over the top in Arkansas out of 89, which comprises the whole state and forms part of the Eighth Federal District. No reports whatsoever have been received from eight counties, including Columbia, east half of Perry, south half of Pike, east half of Sebastian, west half of Sebastian, Van Buren, White and south half of Woodruff. State's sales so far are $14,116,050 in a quota of $20,541,150. The Arkansas chairmen have not lost faith in the ability of their state to make the full quota in good time as usual.

Misses Lula McDonald and Mary Stapp, who have been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goodpaster, of this city, and relatives in Medora, returned to their home in Indianapolis Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Zelma Fountain Fischman returned to New York this morning after an extended visit with relatives and friends in this city, Brownstown and other places. While here Mrs. Fischman was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cox.

Spoiling the Ship for a Penny's Worth of Tar.

You know the old saying—Don't let this happen to our American Ship of State.

Our Country has never stood higher in the eyes of the world than it does today. A place second to none among the Nations has come to us—a place in the sun calling upon us Americans to be teachers and exponents instead of followers.

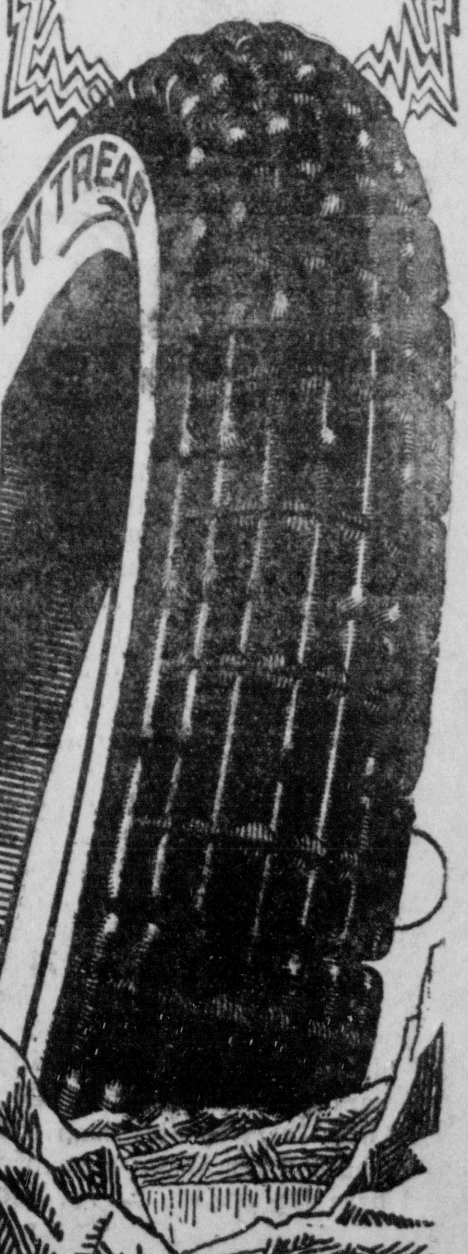

We fought to make the World a decent place to live in, now we must pay to keep the World a decent place to live in—the eyes of all people are upon us, we must put this Victory Loan over in double quick time.

Remember, 4¼ per cent—a quarter more this time, and with America's whole resources behind you.

Do it now. Do your bit towards steering our American Ship of State towards the greatest smooth sailing prosperity the world has known—and finish this war in a businesslike way.

The post lighting system for the business district of the city was endorsed and the president appointed a committee of business men to secure data and information relative to the installation of such a system.

Nathan Kaufman has given considerable attention to this and has the data which was proffered when the matter was under discussion about two years ago. He is a member of the committee that will report recommendations to the organization. Local business men, as a rule, are strongly in favor of the post lighting system for the business district which is the most poorly illuminated section of the city at this time. The posts, it was explained could be purchased by the dealers and the property owners and the city could maintain the system at approximately the same cost that the arc lights in the same district now cost.

LONELY SPOT IS ST. KILDA

Most Remote of the Hebrides Islands, Communication With It Is Decidedly Irregular.

Many have been the vicissitudes through which the lonely island of St. Kilda—attacked by a German submarine in May last—has passed.

St. Kilda is the most remote of the Hebrides, the nearest land to it being Griminish point, North Uist, 40 miles away.

The island has been the property of the Macleods from time immemorial, although one of the family, Gen. Norman Macleod, sold it in 1779. It was repurchased, however, in 1871 for £3,000 by his grandson, known to the worthy folk of St. Kilda as Norman XXII.

The present population is about eighty—Gaelic-speaking crofters, who enjoy home rule and are practical communists. They are cut off from the rest of the world, however, for the greater part of the year. Crime is unknown, but famine often haunts the crofters, owing to there being no regular means of intercourse with the nearest mainland. They live mostly by rearing sheep and killing sea fowl for their feathers and oil.

The fact that a wireless station and post office were established on the island some time ago no doubt caused the shelling by the U-boat.

Appropriate Peace Flag.

A peace flag, designed by a Boston firm, will be sent to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, with the suggestion that it be made the official peace emblem of the United States. An announcement describing the flag says: "Upon a field of white (hope, purity and truth) a blue disk with the white dove, bearing the olive branch of peace and plenty, in flight from the dark shadows of war toward the light of a universal and permanent peace, the whole surrounded by the laurel wreath of victory. The emblem is in sharp contrast to those of conflict which have flooded the world and brings an atmosphere of peace and quiet." A place is provided on the white field of the flag for a blue service star.

Old Timber for New Ships.

According to the rings on the stumps of big oaks cut at Winnegrance, Me., this season for shipbuilding, a number of the trees were from one hundred to one hundred and twenty-five years old, and some had been growing for one hundred and fifty years. The Morse sawmill at Winnegrance has been operated for more than one hundred years. The original frame of the mill is still there, as sound as ever, some of the heavy sticks of timber being 80 feet in length.

ARCHANGEL.

In a pause of the North Wind's sighing
The echoes of cheering come;
And on freezing nights we can see the lights
That are welcoming heroes home;
We do not grudge them their glory—
They have earned it, everyone,
But send a thought to the soldiers
Whose task is not yet done.
The Great Ships furrow the ocean
With an ever-widening track,
And each soldier-boy knows a thought of joy,
"Thank God, we are going back!"
Banners and arches await them;
Never a throat is dumb;
But—hang one flag with the others
For those who are not yet home!
—Florence Van Cleave in the New York Times.

TROOP 4, BOY SCOUTS, TO HAVE FISHING TRIP

The Rev. W. E. Carroll, Scoutmaster, Plans Outing at River Tomorrow Afternoon.

Troop 4, Boy Scouts, composed of the lads of the Central Christian congregation, will enjoy a fishing trip and luncheon at Rockford tomorrow afternoon, the trip having been arranged by the Rev. W. E. Carroll, scoutmaster. The boys will meet at the church at 4:30 o'clock and will "hike" to the river. Each will carry his own lunch and a picnic supper will be enjoyed along the river bank. This is one of the first outings of this kind for the troop this spring and the boys are looking forward to the trip with a great deal of pleasure. The trip was planned late in the afternoon so that it would not interfere with their school work.

SCHOOL MAY CLOSE

Work for Indiana Blind Halted for Lack of Funds.

By United Press. Indianapolis, May 6.—Indiana school for the blind was to close today or within a few days because of lack of funds. The school, which is located in Indianapolis, has closed in June in past years.

Practically all of the work was completed by working the students six days a week instead of five.

Youths between the ages of eight and twenty-one years are permitted to enter the school, and when they are released, they are given permission to "make their own way," to go to relatives or to live at an infirmary. There is a state commission to aid the adult blind by finding positions for them.

The blind of the state have organized into the Indiana Association Workers for the Blind.

Do You Want Your Kidneys Experimented On?

Kidney troubles are getting more common every day. Government health bureau figures say deaths from this cause are 72 per cent. more than 20 years ago.

Anybody who suffers constant backache, who feels blue, nervous and irritable; who has dizzy spells, headache and urinary disorders should suspect kidney weakness. Overworked kidneys must have a rest. Take things easier; live more carefully. Take a good kidney remedy to build the kidneys up again.

But be sure to get Doan's Kidney Pills—the oldest, the most widely used, the best recommended of all kidney pills, now in use all over the civilized world. Don't experiment with your kidneys. Thousands have already tested Doan's. You have their experience to go by. Plenty of cases right here in Seymour. Here's one:

Mrs. H. Moritz, 405 E. Fifth St., says: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I keep them in the house and when I or any other of the family have backache or the kidneys act irregularly, we use Doan's Kidney Pills. They never fail to relieve the trouble and I consider them a good medicine."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moritz had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

INDIANA WELCOMES HER WAR HEROES

the streets, on the buildings and flying even in the air. Predominant of course was the olive drab of the soldiers, which was given a touch of life by the peculiar and fantastic regimental insignia on the left shoulders of the returned overseas men. Aside from this there were regimental citations military medals, gold and silver service stripes and on not a few uniforms there were gold chevrons on the right sleeves. Each one of these denoted a wound.

All but a few of Indiana's counties were represented and Indiana's best turned out to give the boys a royal welcome. Every man in uniform was given food and innumerable reception committees and other committees on entertainment endeavored to see that the fighters did not have an idle moment.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars were spent in preparations for the event. The city of Indianapolis appropriated $100,000 the War Chest gave $50,000 and other individual firms corporations and societies threw offerings into the pot. Of this ten thousand dollars were spent for food and five thousand for motion pictures of the event.

The parade started at Victory Arch, at Monument Place and Meridian. The arch was constructed with the celebration in view but it will remain standing to commemorate the deeds of Hoosiers in the great war.

White sand was strewn in front of the arch to symbolize the sacred purpose of the war. The men marched under an arbor of vines, smilax and flowers, around Monument Place. Turning on Market street, they went to Pennsylvania avenue north to Sixteenth street, west on Sixteenth to Meridian and south on Meridian back to the circle.

Leading the procession was a caisson drawn by six black horses and loaded with an enormous wreath in honor of the dead soldiers. As the parade approached the "Court of the Allies"—another monument at Ohio and Meridian streets—a woman lifted the wreath from the caisson and placed it on the memorial.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BIG DELEGATION

GOES TO CAPITAL

headed the delegation. The expenses of the band cost about $150 and this fund was made up by popular subscription in various parts of the county. Two-thirds of the total amount was raised in this city while the balance was contributed by Brownstown, Vallonia, Medora and citizens in other parts of the county. The band was under the direction of Adolph Steinwedel, director, and John Van de Walle was the bandmaster.

About thirty Vernon township boys boarded the train at Crothersville, and a number from Grassy Fork township also went to Crothersville. Between twenty-five and fifty people from Salem and Washington county came here during the early part of the morning enroute to Indianapolis. Many of them boarded the special train while others drove through to Indianapolis overland. A number of local automobile parties to Indianapolis were formed this morning and the roads were lined with automobiles.

A big crowd of people assembled at the Pennsylvania passenger depot to bid the boys farewell and to extend wishes for a pleasant trip. The soldiers were in high spirits which seemed to soar to new heights as soon as the sun broke through the clouds, giving promise of a bright, clear day.

The men who registered for the trip follow:

Catarrh is a Real Enemy and Requires Vigorous Treatment

Do Not Neglect It.

When you use medicated sprays, atomizers and douches for your Catarrh, you may succeed in unstopping the choked-up air passages for the time being, but this annoying condition returns, and you have to do the same thing over and over again.

Catarrh has never yet been cured by these local applications. Have you ever experienced any real benefit from such treatment?

Throw these makeshift remedies to the winds, and get on the right treatment. Go to your drug store to-day, get a bottle of S. S. S., and commence a treatment that has been praised by sufferers for nearly half a century.

S. S. S. gets right at the source of Catarrh, and forces from the blood the germs which cause the disease. You can obtain special medical advice regarding your own case without charge by writing to Medical Director, 22 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

CHAPTER XV.

Large Bodies Move Slowly—But Mr. Sprouse Was Smaller Than the Average.

There was not a sound for many seconds. She was the first to speak. "I am ready to return with you, Mr. O'Dowd," she said distinctly. "There must be no struggle, no bloodshed. Anything but that."

O'Dowd spoke out of the darkness: "You forget that I have your own word for it that you'll be a dead woman before the day is over. Wouldn't it be better for me to begin shooting at once and spare your soul the everlasting torture that would begin immediately after your self-produced decease?"

A little cry of relief greeted this quaint sally. "You have my word that I will return with you quietly if—" "Thunderation!" exclaimed Barnes wrathfully. "What do you think I am? A woman that—"

"Easy, easy, my dear man," cautioned O'Dowd. "Keep your seat. Don't be deceived by my infernal Irish humor. It is my way to be always polite, agreeable and—prompt. I'll shoot in a second if you move one step outside that cabin."

"O'Dowd, you haven't the heart to drag her back to that beast of a—"

"Hold hard! We'll come to the point without further palavering. Where are you dragging her yourself, ye rascal?"

"To a place where she will be safe from insult, injury, degradation—"

"Well, I have no fault to find with ye for that," said O'Dowd. "Bedad, I didn't believe you had the nerve to tackle the job. You may be interested to know that up to the moment I left the house your absence had not been noticed, my dear Miss Cameron. And as for you, my dear Barnes, your visit is not even suspected. How the devil did ye do it, Barnes?"

"Are you disposed to be friendly, O'Dowd?" demanded Barnes. "If you are not, we may just as well fight it out now as later on."

"You are not to fight!" she cried in great agitation. "What are you doing? Put it away! Don't shoot!"

"Is it a gun he is pulling?" inquired O'Dowd calmly. "And what the deuce are you going to aim at, me hearty? I have a bull's-eye lantern with me. From the luxurious seat behind this rock I could spot ye in a second. Having said as much I now propose arbitration. Would ye mind handing over that tin box in exchange for my polite thanks and a courteous goodbye to both of ye?"

"We have no box of any description, Mr. O'Dowd," cried she triumphantly. "Thank heaven, he got safely away!"

"Do you mean to tell me you came away without the—your belongings, Miss Cameron?" exclaimed O'Dowd.

"They are not with me," she replied. Her grasp on Barnes' arm tightened. "Oh, isn't it splendid? They did not catch him. He—"

"Will you both swear on your sacred honor that ye haven't the jewels in your possession?"

"Unhesitatingly," said Barnes.

"I swear, Mr. O'Dowd."

"Then," said he, "I have no time to waste here. I am looking for a tin box. I beg your pardon for disturbing you."

"Oh, Mr. O'Dowd, I shall never forget all that you have—"

"Whist, now! There is one thing I must insist on your forgetting completely: all that has happened in the last five minutes. What I am doing, Mr. Barnes, would be my death sentence if it ever became known."

"It shall never be known through me, O'Dowd. I'd like to shake your hand, old man."

"God bless you, Mr. O'Dowd," said the girl in a low, small voice, singularly suggestive of tears. "Some day I may be in a position to—"

"Don't say it! You'll spoil everything if you let me think you are in my debt. Bedad, don't be so sure I sha'n't see you again, and soon."

"Tell me how to find Hart's Tavern, old man. I'll—"

"No, I'm dashed if I do. You ought to be grateful to me for not stopping you entirely, without asking me to give you a helping hand. Good-by, and God bless you. I'm praying that ye get away safely, Miss Cameron. So long, Barnes. If you were a crow and wanted to roost on that big tree in front of Hart's Tavern, I dare say you'd take the shortest way there by flying as straight as a bullet from the mouth of this pit, following your extremely good-looking nose."

They did not wait for the break of day. Taking O'Dowd's hint, Barnes directed his steps straight out from the mouth of the quarry and pressed confidently onward. In answer to a question she informed him that there were no fewer than twenty-five men in Green Fancy, all of them shrewd, resolute and formidable.

"I cannot, for the life of me, see why they took chances on inviting me to the house, Miss Cameron."

She was silent for a moment, and when she spoke it was with great intensity. "Mr. Barnes, I had your life in my hands all the time you were at Green Fancy. I shudder now when I think of what might have happened. Before you were asked to the house, I was coolly informed that you would not leave it alive if I so much as breathed a word to you concerning my unhappy plight. The first word of an appeal to you would have been the signal for—for your death. That is what they held over me. When I spoke to you on the couch that night, I—oh, don't you see? Don't you see that I wouldn't, cruelly, selfishly risked your life—not my own—when I—"

"There, there, now!" he cried, consolingly, as she put her hands to her face and gave way to sobs.

"Forgive me," she murmured. "I didn't mean to be so silly."

"It helps, to cry sometimes," he said. "The first faint signs of day were struggling out of the night when they stole across the road above Hart's Tavern and made their way through the stable yard to the rear of the house. His one thought was to get her safely inside the Tavern."

The door was locked. He delivered a series of resounding kicks upon its stout face. Revolver in hand, he faced about and waited for the assault of the men who, he was sure, would come plunging around the corner of the building in response to the racket. But there was no attack.

At last there were sounds from within. A key grated in the lock and a bolt was shot. The door flew open. Mr. Clarence Dillingford appeared in the opening, partially dressed, his hair sadly tumbled, his eyes blinking in the light of the lantern he held aloft.

"Well, what the—?" Then his gaze alighted on the lady. "For the love of—!" began the embarrassed Dillingford. "What the dev— I say, can't you see that I'm not dressed? What the—"

"Give me that lantern," said Barnes, and snatched the article out of the unresisting hand. "Show me the way to Miss Thackeray's room, Dillingford. No time for explanations."

"Well, for the love of—"

"I will take you to Miss Thackeray's room," said Barnes, leading her swiftly through the narrow passage. "She will make you comfortable for the— that is until I am able to secure a room for you. Come on, Dillingford."

Miss Thackeray was awake. Through the closed door she asked what on earth was the matter.

"I have a friend here—a lady. Will you dress as quickly as possible and take her in with you for a little while?"

There was no immediate response from the inside. Then Miss Thackeray observed, quite coldly: "I think I'd like to hear the lady's voice, if you don't mind. I recognize yours perfectly, Mr. Barnes, but I am not in the habit of opening my—"

"I guess I don't need to dress," said Miss Thackeray, and opened her door. "Come in, please. I don't know who you are or what you've been up to, but there are times when women ought to stand together. And what's more, I sha'n't ask any questions."

She closed the door behind the unexpected guest, and Barnes gave a great sigh of relief.

"Say, Mr. Barnes," said Miss Thackeray, several hours later, coming upon him in the hall, "I guess I'll have to ask you to explain a little. She's a nice, pretty girl, and all that, but she won't open her lips about anything."

She says you will do the talking. I'm a good sport, you know, and not especially finicky, but I'd hate to—"

"How is she? Is she resting? Does she seem—"

"Well, she's stretched out on my bed with my best nightie on, and she seems to be doing as well as could be expected," said Miss Thackeray dryly.

"Has she had coffee and—"

"I am going after it now. It seems that she is in the habit of having it in bed. I wish I had her imagination. It would be great to imagine that all you have to do is to say, 'I think I'll have coffee and rolls and one egg' sent up, and then go on believing your wish would come true. Still, I don't mind. She seems so nice and pathetic, and in trouble, and I—"

"Thank you, Miss Thackeray. If you will see that she has her coffee, I'll wait for you here in the hall and try to explain. I can't tell you everything at present—not without her consent—but what I do tell will be sufficient to make you think you are listening to a chapter of a dime novel."

New Indiana Laws.

(By Charles Kettelborough, director of the Legislative Reference Bureau) Written for United Press

Dependent Children—The act creating boards of children's guardians and providing for the care of dependent children was amended to provide that a child may be placed under the care of its mother and compensation for such care allowed by the board at not to exceed the legal rate allowed for care of wards of such boards.

Husband and Wife—The act provides that when the real estate of an insane person, being a husband or wife, is sold by order of court the person who is sane may execute a separate deed, was amended to include persons incapable of managing his or her estate or business affairs because of old age, infirmities, improvidence, or being a spendthrift.

Drainage—No comprehensive drainage act was passed at the session of 1919, but several important amendments were adopted which materially changed the drainage laws.

An act approved Feb. 26, provides for drainage in cities having a population of 8,000 or less when the proposed drainage system will affect lands located outside the boundaries of such city. The levee act of 1907 as amended in 1917 was amended in detail and a new section added providing for the maintenance of levees. The act concerning the repair of tile drains was amended to provide that any remonstrance filed in opposition to repairing a tile drain must be signed by two-thirds of the landowners named in the petition and who are also the owners of the lands abutting more than 50 percent of the total length of the ditch. The act prohibiting the lowering of fresh water lakes in the construction of drains was modified so as to exempt Noble and Lagrange counties from its operation. A new act was passed which will require drainage commissioners to place drainage assessments on the duplicates promptly and enforce their collection, a measure which will afford relief to material men who furnish tile and other supplies used in construction. By virtue of the provisions of another act the interest on drainage bonds was increased from 5 percent to 6 percent.

When to Gather Roots and Herbs.

For medicinal purposes, roots and herbs should be gathered when their medicinal properties are at their best. For instance, roots of annual plants should be dug just before their flowering season, and roots of biennial or perennial plants after the tops have dried. All these things are taken into consideration in gathering the roots and herbs, many tons of which are used annually in preparing that most successful of all remedies for woman's ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The Consumer and The Standard Oil Company (Indiana)

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) always has recognized the men and women who use its products as the ultimate judges of the success of the Company's earnest effort to render a superior service.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) conducts its business with but one goal as an objective—that every individual purchaser of Standard Oil products shall experience complete satisfaction with every purchase.

When the Company reaches this goal, then, and only then, will the Board of Directors, acting as Trustees for the 4623 stockholders, feel that their ideals have been realized.

Neither the Company, nor the patrons, can be satisfied unless the product is uniformly up to the highest standard of excellence—unless it can be bought without inconvenience—unless the price charged represents true value.

To bring about this degree of satisfaction, unerring accuracy in manufacture, complete distribution, and efficiency in keeping down operating costs are essential.

Working without precedent, but with high ideals, integrity of purpose, and a keen sense of its obligation as a public servant, the Company believes it has succeeded.

The judgment of the consuming public has been for the most part favorable to the Company, as is shown by the ever increasing volume of business which the Standard Oil Company of Indiana is enjoying.

The best friends of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana are those customers who have used its goods, and its service, for the longest time.

It's Here—and Now We're Ready

The Largest and Most Complete Vulcanizing Plant in Southern Indiana. A Real Tire Repair Shop.

The car owners have been patient in waiting with us and now that we are ready nothing shall be left undone to render meritorious service.

Our equipment, the same as is used in the large tire factories, was manufactured especially for our plant, and with it we are able to make tire repairs on exactly the same principle as are new tires made.

Our manager comes to us after having been manager of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.'s Repair Department, for several years. He knows the tire game and will be glad to advise with you concerning your tire troubles.

Do not judge us by the class of work received from the small poorly equipped shop and done by inexperienced help. We have the best of machinery and one who is experienced with the work so that all work leaving our factory will be first-class in every respect. We not only repair tires but repair all kinds of rubber goods. YOU ARE INVITED TO CALL AND SEE OUR PLANT IN OPERATION.

We Want Junk Tires
Will Pay More Than the Market Price for Your Old Casings.

Bring us your old discarded tires and we will show you a method whereby you may get many more miles out of them, or we will buy them at more per pound than market price.

With our method you can get from 1,000 to 5,000 miles out of your old discarded casings at a minimum cost.

How We Do It

We take an old, worn, rim-cut casing and with our tire Skiving Machine, the bead of the tire is cut off to a fine feather edge, so that it will snugly fit within a tire of the same size. The method adds strength to a tire, whether it be old or new, and gives protection to the inner tube, which practically eliminates punctures and blow-outs, thereby allowing you to get full mileage out of your tires and eliminating that dread of tire trouble.

IT IS NO EXPERIMENT, for it has stood the severest of all tests, that of practical use, which has demonstrated it to be the best method yet devised to eliminate tire trouble and get full wear out of your tires at a minimum expense. Come in and see the work. ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY cars have already been equipped in this county and to the great satisfaction of the car owners, they are giving absolute satisfaction and doing all that we claim they will do.
